

that we have a room
there will be no excuse for you. for you could not have doubted. That you would be very sure
of the warmest welcome.
Gave a great deal of love to Mr. Gray &
told him that he is very good to spare you.
The weather is so fine
that you will have a
quiet passage in crossing.
Your surprise must have been as great
as ours to hear that

your Black Charles
was coming. & Paris
read last evening a letter that your Aunt Lizzie wrote to him at New York. & she felt a great delight ~~that~~ that her plan for her husband had been so successful, but sadly forlorn, when she found herself left alone.
Little Jennie said.
"He did believe that Papa had gone to dine with Sarah Lowell"
quite forgetting all us
